The diagram shows a button layout with three concentric circles. The outermost circle is solid black and represents the total diameter including a 54 mm trim. The middle circle is dashed black and represents the button size of 44 mm. The innermost circle is solid orange and represents the printing area for text and logos, with a diameter of 42 mm. Red dimension lines with arrows indicate the diameters for each level: the outermost for the 54 mm trim, the middle for the 44 mm button size, and the innermost for the 42 mm printing area.
